“Spoke”n by our Members:

Hi Everyone,

We had a great turn-out for the March meeting. With spring on the way, let's hope for a fabulous turn-out in April. Our meeting on the 14th is the night before the Stateline retreat. I am so looking forward to spending the week-end with a bunch of friends, weaving, eating way too much (at least on my account) and having a great time. I will take photos and have some in the next newsletter.

Thanks again to Judy for teaching random weave last month. I know everyone had a great time and took home a beautiful basket!

For those of you who are planning on participating in the Appalachian Festival, check the section in this newsletter regarding times and sign-up. I meant to have a sign-up sheet last month but just forgot.

If you have an upcoming project you are teaching at a meeting, please bring the item to the April meeting so Linda can get a photo for the newsletter.

See you on the 14th...Linda

MARCH 2010 MEETING MINUTES.....

The meeting was chaired by Vicky Nicolaci, VP as Sue Denedy is out with a hip replacement.

Family News:

Vicky Nicolaci became a grandmother on Monday. Mary Durbin's son is the director of the Irondog in Alaska. Mary brought a magazine with an article about him. Mary Rhodes reported that the penetration radiation worked on her husband. Terri Wright's daughter passed away on February 25th. The guild sent a donation to the ALS Foundation. Georgann Bates took her cats on her RV road trip and they were great travelers. She brought pictures to share.

January minutes were approved as printed in the newsletter.

Teacher Liaison:

Terri Brenner has the sign-up sheet for the Kohler Class. Terri is going to open the class up to the Dayton Guild. If you need photos of the classes offered contact Terri. A post-dated check will need to be sent to Terri to secure your place in the class.

Terri is also working on getting Kathy Tessler for a fall class. Terri is waiting for Kathy's proposal photos and pricing information.
