“Spoke”n by our President::

Hi All, Although we had a small group at the March meeting, we nevertheless had a wonderful time together. Jeanne's bracelet is beautiful and really not as complicated as it looks. Thanks, Jeanne, for a neat project.

We had a guest and prospective new member, Alice Weitzenkorn. She is a friend of Kathy Mari. Alice lives in Mt. Lookout and is a member of the Weavers Guild. Welcome, Alice.

Terri Wright brought her cedar water bottle and wanted everyone to make sure to bring their bottles with them for April's project. She will have all the materials ready to go.

I met with former member Joan Sigmund the other day. She is cleaning out her basket weaving materials and has generously donated them to the Guild. All she asks is for a donation made to a food pantry or soup kitchen. I will be bringing the first batch of materials with me to the April meeting - handles, reed - both round and flat, and patterns. She has more and will be sharing them in the future. I'm looking forward to Stateline, the day after our meeting. Hope to see you all on the 13th. Happy weaving! Sue

UPCOMING WEAVING PROJECTS...

March 2011 MEETING MINUTES.....

I am sorry to have missed the meeting. Thanks to Shawn Chapman for covering the minutes for me...Linda Refreshments: Pot luck was served. Always good food when we gather together.

There was discussion for Terri Wright's spritz bottle covering. - Bring your own bottle and she had 2 patterns for the weaving. (see page 1 of this newsletter for details)

Terri also showed us some bowls made of pine bark and she agreed she could teach these in September (change the space dye project to another time).

Also Terri had a Makuk (Native American bowl) and pine bark towers for show and tell. She would also be willing to teach these in September too. More discussion later to pick a date at her home.

Jeanne's caterpillar bracelets were a big hit and her instructions were wonderful. We all started them and they were to be finished on our own.
